

A NEW Beginning

EXPERIENCE THE MUSIC

music

We love to bring our music to the Lexington community.

performance

We perform throughout Fayette County and other counties in and around Lexington as well as out of state.

education

Students enjoy extra learning and performing opportunities on Flutes of all shapes and sizes.

friendship

People of all ages come together to experience, understand and enjoy the music of the Flute.

EXperience the Artistry of Flutes in Harmony

THERE IS NOTHING MORE ENTERTAINING THAN PLAYING A FLUTE!!
Most of our concerts are free and open to the public.
Come and enjoy the music!

Experience the music.

THE FLUTE SYMPHONY OF LEXINGTON INVITES YOU TO JOIN THE FUN!

Interested flutists, please contact director Lisa Sherwood at conductor@lexingtonflutes.org, and please visit www.lexingtonflutes.org

MUSIC IS BEST
WHEN SHARED!

THE FLUTE SYMPHONY OF LEXINGTON
a multi-generational flute ensemble.

Scholarships are available in the form of tuition (dues) waivers for qualified students.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Flute Symphony of Lexington performs throughout the Bluegrass region. "FSL" has also performed at the Cincinnati Art Museum, Hilbert Circle Theater and the ArtsGarden in Indianapolis, as well as for the ArtsPlace Gallery Hop in Lexington, KY, with the UNCA Flute Ensemble, Asheville, NC, Centre College, Norton Center for the Arts, Danville, KY, The Flute Society of Kentucky's Annual Festival in Richmond, KY, and pre-concert performances for the Lexington Philharmonic at the Singletary Center.

The group is open to any flute player with one year or more of playing experience, and we are looking for more flutists!

ALL levels are welcome, as music is edited to fit each player's abilities.

Adults - if you haven't dusted off that flute in a few years, here's the perfect opportunity!

COMING OF AGE

The Flute Symphony of Lexington celebrates the start of their ninth season in 2010.

The Flute Symphony of Lexington

Lisa Sherwood, Director, Conductor

lexingtonflutes.org

